Pirkei Avot – Ethics of the Fathers 2:16

הוא הִזָּה אֹמֵר, לֹא עָלֶיךָ הַמְּלָאכָה לְגַמֵּר, וְלֹא אַתָּה בֶּן חוֹרִין לְבַטֵּל מִמֶּנָּה

Rabbi Tarfon used to say: It is not your duty to finish the work, but neither are you at liberty to neglect it

Due at the June 21 Show, Share & Kvell

After 40 years of Pomegranate Guild activities, members most likely have one or more UFOs (unfinished objects).

Your challenge is to complete one (or more).

If you require assistance with materials or help in physical completion of the work (e.g. an extra pair of eyes or hands), please contact info@pomegranateguild.com.

In the unlikely event you have no UFO, the challenge is to make a piece based on the above Pirkei Avot quote, using any textile style or technique shared at the Lunch and Shmooze or POM meetings, including but not limited to word art, printing on cotton or silk, dorset buttons, fabric beads, embroidery stitches, etc.

If you require assistance with ideas, materials or execution of techniques, please contact info@pomegranateguild.com.

The challenge is due at the Show, Share and Kvell meeting on June 21, 2023 or whenever you complete the challenge...
